

Spring 2017 KOLT TEACHING INNOVATION GRANT PROPOSALS

Instructor	Course Name	College / Department	Objective of the Teaching Innovation Initiative	Previous Applications
1. Megan MacDonald	LITR 432 Postcolonial Theory and Practice	CSSH English Language and Comparative Literature	To redesign the LITR 432 course in order to incorporate digital mapping technologies with literary archives and location based analysis. This will be done through the use of ArcGIS and Omeka "Neatline" platforms.	No
2. Mehmet Cengiz Onbaşı	ELEC 550 Selected Topics in Electrical and Electronics Engineering	CE Electrical and Electronics Engineering	To design a course that combines computer architecture, software and hardware of old, current and emerging data in order to prepare the essential materials for an edX/Coursera course.	No
3. Öznur Özkasap	COMP 132 Advanced Programming	CE Computer Engineering	To enhance the course design and components of the course by using flipped learning methods in PS/lab sessions in order to promote active learning and critical thinking.	Yes Fall 2016